

IUCEL2019 Awards – List of Winners

IUCEL2019 provides an opportunity to recognize and reward individuals, universities and schools that have shown outstanding impact in the field of e-Learning and learning technologies.

1. Outstanding Open Educational Resources (OER) Award

The award recognizes innovative uses of the open educational contents which lead to greater learning engagement and experience, beyond traditional educational resources.

Pustaka Negeri Sarawak for PANDEi – The People Accessible, Network, for Digital Empowerment & Inclusivity Project.

2. Outstanding e-Learning Mobile Apps Award

This category recognizes mobile learning projects that make innovative and effective use of mobile technology to reach audiences achieve learning goals.

Universiti Malaysia Kelantan for the Comixs bil: Arabiyyah with English Translation App by Ahmad Zaki Amiruddin and Amanee Binti Abdul Hai

3. Outstanding e-Learning Product or Project Award

This award recognizes creative e-learning products or project, with digital content, technology, and design that has led to positive impact in learning.

Taylor's University for the project Re-Designing Classroom Learning to Participatory Online Course for U1 Modules by Mr Serif Banyan, Ms. Nur Ainif Omar, Ms. Haniffa Beevi and Ms. Puteh Noraihan A Rahman

4. Best Paper Awards for the International Conference on E-Learning, which is a research conference held for the first time as part of IUCEL2019. Two best papers have been selected and they are:

1. Enrichment of Lifelong Learning Behaviour for First-Year Students using Structured Learning Materials by Dr Syifak Izhar Hisham and Dr Aziman Abdullah
2. Understanding University Students' Behavioral Intention to the Social Media for Teaching and Learning by Dr Nur Shamsiah Abdul Rahman, Anis Fariyah Mat Raffei and Waleed Mugahed Al-Rahmi.

5. Primary School e-Learning Awards

This award recognizes a team from primary school that demonstrates that they have made positive contributions in adopting of e-learning in education.

Sekolah Kebangsaan Bukit Beruang Melaka for the project SpeedLine Math - Gamified Math Learning App for Pupils with Special Needs by Mr Nor Azmidy Ismail.

6. Secondary School e-Learning Awards

This award recognizes a team from secondary school that has achieved a positive impact in using learning technologies in education.

Sekolah Menengah Sains Kuching Utara for the project The use of Robotics in Learning of Blood Circulatory System by Ms. Azrinawati Jinep Jiheng and Mr Ahmad Adham Berhaumidin

7. OpenLearning Massive Open Online Course (MOOC) Award

The award focusses on the MOOC that employs a range of methods and media that has effectively improved distance or blended learning.

Universiti Malaysia Terengganu for the Open Water Scuba Diver MOOC

8. Best e-Learning Management System Award

This award recognizes a self-developed LMS that has the potential to revolutionize the way learning is designed, delivered and managed.

Universiti Teknikal Malaysia Melaka for the G-MOOC Platform to Enhance Students' Motivation by Prof Dr Sazilah Salam, Rujianto Eko Saputro, and Mohd. Hafiz Zakaria

9. Best e-Learning Facilitator Award

This award recognizes the e-Learning facilitator who has produced exceptional results within an organization as a direct result of learning technologies, methods or contents being developed.

Associate Professor Dr Suria Baba from Universiti Malaysia Kelantan.

10. Best Trend-Setter Award

Best Trend-Setter Award is for an individual who has led the way, and been very active in transforming the teaching and learning ecosystem in all levels of education.

Norhailmi Abdul Mutalib from SMK Jerlun, Kedah.

11. Higher Education e-Learning Maestro Award

This award will be presented to an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to the success of the learning technologies industry through their illustrious career .

Prof Dr Fong Soon Fook from Universiti Malaysia Sabah